

Question

How do you define “truth”?

Question

Have you ever shared a story that you found out later was not true? What did you do?

Question

Is there such a thing as a lack of bias? Why or why not?

Question

Where do the adults in your life get their news? Do you think these news outlets are reliable?

Question

Is social media a good platform for discussing politics?

Question

If you were only allowed to obtain information from one source, what would it be and why? Every person playing the game responds to this question.

Question

What is the benefit and downside of companies collecting personal information about you?

Question

What makes a person trustworthy? How would you know if someone was being dishonest?

Question

In a conversation would you rather be right or respectful? Explain your answer.

Question

Should social media sites be able to remove posts that are either offensive or promote fake news?

Question

Does agreeing with what you read make it true?

Question

What is the difference between an opinion and a fact? Give an example.

Question

What experiences have been most influential in shaping your views about society and the world?

Question

Is journalism important to maintaining a healthy democracy? Why or why not?

Question

What is the most recent book you read that was for pleasure? What made you want to read it?

Question

What is one current news story you are following? Why is it of interest to you? How does it affect you?

Question

What is a stereotype? Give an example from a television show or marketing campaign.

Question

Are there any topics that should not be discussed at school?

Question

Quickly, what is your first reaction when you hear: Fox News? NPR? People Magazine? YouTube?

Question

What are the most important things to learn about candidates before a person votes?

Question

What makes a story factual? How many sources do you need to validate the accuracy of a story?

Question

If you were going to make a change to a policy in this country or in your community, what would it be and why?

Question

Have you ever purchased something because you liked the person who helped advertise it? If so, what was it and how did the person influence you?

Question

What was your most recent disagreement about? Did you leave the conversation feeling respected or disrespected? How do you think the other person felt?

Media Literacy Week Edition 25 Question Game

Question

Is there such a thing as too much information? Explain your response.

Media Literacy Week Edition 25 Question Game

Question

Media Literacy Week Edition 25 Question Game

Question

Media Literacy Week Edition 25 Question Game

Question

Media Literacy Week Edition 25 Question Game

Question

